

Pete Gardiner – Pretty Smiles lyrics.

Intro

And you're someone else's dear,
and your taxi's almost here, and you look a little bit beautiful when your, solid gold conscience is just, aching to let you all the way down, and you're just another part of the weekend traffic now.

Chorus

It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night, Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost.

Verse 1

But my pot of gold's just another mistake, disguised in pretty smiles, that likes to take, my heart to hell and leave it there, and walk away and now it's,
all too late to realise why, you and I smoke different brands of cigarettes, out in the pouring rain and I'm looking at you, Like a cross between a habit and a real bad day, don't break my heart; just take it away,
'cos there's not enough time and too much to say,
and I hate myself so don't be surprised,
I was falling on love with a ghost all damn night.

Chorus

Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost.

Verse 2

I took a bus ride on a revelation, I paid the fare, got off, walked around, said "Thank you, God", for giving me something to write about and to sing about, and to go on and on and on and It's my last time coming round here, there's nothing to achieve,
and the wrong girl always needs you,
and the right one always leaves, how come the days move like a heartbeat, from the nights you can't believe,
and I'm stranded at the bottom of the end of the world, trying to translate half my dreams and they all say.

Chorus

Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night,
Nah, It ain't easy when you're falling in love with a ghost all damn night.

Outro

And you're someone else's dear,
